

IMAC
INSURANCE MANAGERS
ASSOCIATION OF CAYMAN

IMAC EDUCATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

P.O. Box 10233, Grand Cayman KY1-1002, Cayman Islands

The Educational Scholarship Trust Fund of the Insurance Managers Association of Cayman (IMAC) was formed in 1994 to assist with the post high school education of young Caymanians. Contributions are derived from IMAC, the individual insurance management firms and the captive insurance companies themselves along with the proceeds of the annual Cayman Captive Forum held at the Ritz Carlton. It is the intention that the funds available be used where they can provide the most benefit. During 2010 the Fund achieved charitable status which it is hoped will assist with future fundraising efforts. The financial statements are audited by KPMG. Since inception the Fund has raised over $ 4.5 million and assisted 54 students.

The first recipient of a scholarship from the Fund was Mesha Scott from Cayman Brac. She successfully completed a United World Colleges degree at Atlantic College in Wales. Later Dorothy Scott from George Town was the recipient of a scholarship from the Fund to Armand Hammer College, New Mexico, U.S.A. She completed her studies and proceeded to study law at the London School of Economics. Thereafter the fund assisted Bradley Erskine who studied for a Finance degree at Florida International University and Tuda Murphy, who also gained a finance degree at King College in Tennessee. Additional funds have been granted, over the years to Adam Clyne, Jamal Solomon, Janine Mitchell, and Ian Beckles.

Our first full-time scholarship enabled Tiffany Anderson of Bodden Town to study for a BA (Hons) in Accounting and Finance at South Bank University in London, while Laveda Burton completed a B.A. Honours degree in Finance and International Business from Richmond University, also in London. Jessica Powell obtained an International Finance degree at the University of Miami and in May 2010 Monique Hydes graduated with a Bachelors degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing at Nova Southeastern University. In 2011 Victoria King gained a B.A in Spanish and Philosophy at the University of Virginia and Shivonne Nixon graduated with a BA in Psychology at Acadia University in Canada. 2012 saw Onassia Bodden gain a Bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Miami and Freddy Diaz Christian received a B.A (Hons) in Film and Moving Image from the University of Norwich.

Samantha Dorman graduated early in 2013 with a Bachelor's degree in Veterinary Science from Massey University in New Zealand and in May of 2013 Camille Bodden graduated with honors (cum laude) as a B.A. in Communications & Media Studies with a minor in Marketing from Stetson University. She was recognized as "Outstanding Senior - Department of Communication & Media Studies" at Stetson University's Senior Honors Banquet. Also, in May 2013 Karysa Ebanks graduated as a Bachelor of Science in Management (with Distinction) from Purdue University and in August 2013 James Geary graduated with a Sociology and Music degree from Anderson University. In August 2014 Priscilla Brown graduated with Honours (Summa Cum Laude) in Business Management from the University of South Florida in Tampa. In June 2015 Brittany Borden graduated with a first class degree in Business Administration from Brock

IMAC EDUCATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

P.O. Box 10233, Grand Cayman KY1-1002, Cayman Islands

University, Ontario and Sheena Jackson gained a BSc degree in Information Technology Management for Business at the University of Sheffield while a year later Chloe Tathum earned a BSc degree in Movement Science at Penn State University and Erica Powell graduated with a degree in Early Childhood Education from Florida international University. In 2017 Aaron Farrington graduated with a degree in Psychology at Plymouth University and Kayla Solomon who earned a BA (Hons) in Early Childhood Education from the University of Portsmouth. In 2018 Whitney General completed 8 years of study earning a degree in Medicine from Bristol University.

This summer, Amy Thompson graduated in Hospitality Management at Portsmouth University Mya Scotchman gained a degree in Psychology at Plymouth University, Julian Jervis graduated in Biology from George Washington University, Washington , Martynna Berry gained a degree in Communication and Media Studies at Carleton University and Alexandra Artuch graduated in English Literature at the University of East Anglia,

Currently the fund is supporting the following full-time students:

Katlen Bush - Social Studies and Education - Indiana Wesleyan University

Ashli Welcome ó Veterinary Medicine at Szent Istvan University in Budapest

Leshontae Missick - Medicine at International American University in St. Lucia

Miriam Mascal ó Marketing ó University of Tampa

Shantelle Ellis ó Tourism Management at University College Birmingham

Isaiah Robinson ó Computer science ó Cardiff University

Jake Bennett ó Aviation Management with flight ó Florida Institute of Technology

Katherine Tatum ó Psychology in Education ó University of York

Lacey Barnes ó Public Relations ó University of Texas, San Antonio

Jevaughnie Ebanks ó Film and Television Production ó University of Bradford

Vanessa Burke ó Marketing ó University of Liverpool

Nathan McCoy ó Public Health Management at Baylor University

Aryana Grant ó Actuarial Science ó University of Essex (Linda Haddleton scholarship)

IMAC EDUCATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

P.O. Box 10233, Grand Cayman KY1-1002, Cayman Islands

Deajra Tulloch ó Computer Science ó University of Surrey

Enrique McCoy ó Business Marketing with Management ó University of Birmingham

Alfie Parker ó Business ó Northumbria University

Joe Jackson ó Economics ó London University

Sarah Jackson ó Dietetics ó University of North Colorado

Criss Gonzalez ó Economics ó University of Nottingham

Briana Bodden ó Biology ó Andrews University, Michigan

Sydni Ebanks ó Psychology - Brock University